

Two-day workshop on "Molecular Biology Techniques" was organized at UPUMS

MASOOD TAIMURI
(WednesdayTimes)

Under the aegis of MRU (Multi-Disciplinary Research Unit) at Etawah Uttar Pradesh Medical University Saifai, Vice Chancellor Professor Dr. Prabhat Kumar Singh inaugurated a two-day (6-7 September) workshop on "Molecular Biology Techniques" by lighting a lamp in front of Maa Saraswati. He also inaugurated three new laboratories Drug Discovery Lab, Molecular Biology Lab, Cytogenetics Lab and inspected all the laboratories and praised the efforts of MRU nodal officer Dr. Sushil Kumar.

On this occasion, he said that such laboratories and workshops are of special importance to improve the central equipment facility and research work for more research and better patient care in the field of health sciences and to enable faculty members to select and pursue top research work. MRU nodal officer Dr. Sushil Kumar said that members of medical faculties participated in the workshop. He informed that important points of areas like Vice Chancellor Professor Dr. conventional PCR, prime Ramakant Yadav, Registrar designing mutations for real time Professor Dr. Chandraveer Singh, Head of Medicine Department Professor Dr. material (DNA and RNA) were covered in the Aadesh Kumar, Medical workshop. Workshop Resource Superintendent Professor Dr. Person Professor Dr. Amit Singh SP Singh, Scientist Dr. Arvind shared important information in Kumar and all the scientists and the workshop regarding EVN technical staff of MRU and molecular biology techniques and all the faculty members were and presented his views on the present in the program. main points.